A WARM RECEPTION

Given to the New Y. M. C. A. Secretary--Speeches by City Clergymen.

Stirring Address by the Secretary--The Right Ring About It--Aggressive Policy.

The Y. M. C. A. hall was filled to overflowing last evening with a meeting to welcome the new secretary.

The evening's proceedings were opened with the hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," followed by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Rugg. Mr. Shakespeare occupied the chair. The chairman made a few opening remarks and called on the Rev Mr. McLeod to address the meeting. The Rev. gentleman commented on the object of the Y. M. C. A. and the difficulties before the new secretary, who was like Paddy's cow tied on top of a barren hill; if the cow had nothing to eat she had a good prospect before her anyway. Mr. Teague was delighted with the prospect of Victoria's natural beauties. There was nothing else much to encourage him. He must not rely on much assistance from the ministers except in regard to advice, and above all things "he must not expect too much of the press." The Rev. gentleman promised the weight of his assistance to aid the young secretary.

Rev. Mr. Starr next took the floor. To say that Mr. Starr was equal to the occasion would be saying but little. He remarked that this meeting was intended as a "send off" to the new secretary, but he called it a "take in" and a glaring one at that. The great difficulties before the secretary were innumerable. As to the objects of the Y.M.C.A.s in general he agreed with them but what he was most "down on" were the goody, goody chaps who were "like calves foot jelly run into a pair of pants. (great laughter) Christianity should make a fellow a man! and a whole man at that! That was the kind wanted here in Victoria." The reverend gentleman's speech was short and to the point. He concluded by tendering his advice and assistance to the young secretary in the arduous duties he had undertaken.

An intermission here followed and ice cream, lemonade, cake of all kinds and shapes were handed round by fair young ladies.

A somewhat lengthy address by the Rev. Dr. Reid, full of good precept, humor and kind advice, followed, when the event of the evening took place—the debut of the new secretery.

THE SECRETARY'S ADDRESS.

Mr. Teague having been introduced to the meeting by the chairman said:

Mr. President, Ladies and Gentlemen:

It is not my intention to attempt to reply to all the pleasant words that have been spoken to-night, but out of a full heart I thank you for your earnest words of welcome. It is in fact but a repetition of what I have been receiving ever since I came to Victoria. My heart has been with you for a long time, and while it was hard for one to leave those at home who were so dear to me yet it seemed to be Lord's will that I should come and so I made the sacrifice willingly. Now a word as to our work. It was only forty-four years ago last June when in London, England, the first Young Men's Christian Association was organized by Mr. George Williams. Since that time the growth of the organization has been steady, until to day there are in the world 3800 of these associations, spending more than a million of dollars each year for current expenses, many of them with fine buildings and many thousands of members recognized by the church and the community as a divine agency for the extension of God's kingdom in the world. But why this work? Why the need? I very much fear that to-day there is a lack of knowledge on the part of the great majority of the people in the world as to the power of young men, whether that power be exerted for good or evil. It has been found on a careful estimate that every twenty years the entire business would change hands. Now if this be true, who, if not the young men and boys of to-day will be the business men, the men in places of honor and trust, the men who shall make our laws and see that they are executed, to-morrow? In the United States enough young men come of age every four years to control the Presidential election were their votes all cast on one side. The hope of the church and of the devil are the young men who shall have them? So to-day we need the Young Men's Christian Association. First as a refuge. Do you know about the only place in a city open to all men at all times is the saloon, and I want to say right here that first, last, all the time, the Association is the sworn enemy of the saloon. Second, the Association is needed as a counter attraction. The saloon and the billiard hall are decided influences for evil and so the Church should place over against them attractions equal to, and equally aggressive. Third and last, to take the place of a Christian home and home pleasures to the large number of young men whose social surroundings are those of the ordinary city boarding house. This last is most important in every city. There are large numbers of young men away from home and friendly restraints and something must be done for them. We want to be able to bid them welcome to a place that shall be, not simply a reading room, but a home—a place bright and attractive; a place that shall show the touch of a woman's hand. To this end we ask the help of every person in the community. From the ministers, as the recognized leaders of Christian work, kindly criticism and advice. From the older men, sympathy and money. (We shall be around for the latter soon.) From the christian young men active work. And lastly, but by no means least, from the ladies (I am partial to the ladies for the help I have received from them before) the work that only ladies can do. The nice little touches here and there that shall make our rooms bright and attractive and a pleasant place for young men to come to. This is briefly our aim, to help young men and in the end to win them to the Lord Jesus Christ. We ask your help. I am here, not to do the work; I shall not do it, but to work with you. Again I thank you for your most cordial welcome, and if there is any way I can help any of you, come to me, and I will do my best.

Mr. Teague concluded amidst hearty, spontaneous applause.

NOTES.

Mr. Teague is a man of energy and good address and is the right man in the right place. He struck the right chord last night. He has a large field to work upon and unless the young men rally round and help him, and the ladies, too, his work will be heavy. With such a grand start as was given the association last night, however, there is no reason why it should not prove a power in Victoria for good. Mr. Teague has the assurance of help and sympathy of the ministers of the gospel in this city to encourage him in his work, but more than this is required. It is money. All these organizations require money to carry on the work, and next to the church there is no more deserving society than the Young Men's Christian Association.

During the evening solos were sung by Mr. Reid and Mr. Brown, the latter receiving an encore to which he did not respond. The ladies of the different churches provided refreshments in the shape of cakes, lemonade and ice cream. The meeting closed by singing "Praise God from Whom all Blessings Flow," and Mr. Wadham pronounced the benediction.

PUBLIC SCHOOL MATTERS.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE TIMES:

SIR,—You deserve the thanks of all the honest teachers in the Province for your timely exposure of corruption in the educational department. It is more than time to call a halt. But there is something more required than newspaper exposure and denunciation. As soon as the legislature meets a demand will be made for a committee of the house to investigate the case of every temporary certificate teacher in the Province, so that the public may get an insight into the whole business and have justice done to all concerned. FAIR PLAY.

PERSONAL.

The Hon Costigan will shortly visit Manitoba, Calgary and British Columbia.

A J McLellan and many other passengers will arrive to-night from the Skeena on the Boscowitz.

W. F. Cochrane, of Fort McLeod, son of Senator Cochrane of Ont., is in the city.

Mr. James Gray, of the Ophir Mining company in the Big Bend country, arrived down last night.

The Empire says Mr. Blake's health is not improved and that he will not take his seat in Parliament next session and possibly never.

Mr Jno Bell of Somenos came down on to-day's train to see his brother Angus, who is lying seriously ill at the St Joseph's Hospital.

Mr J Crozier, of Cowichan, who went to England last fall, returned on Friday night, bringing with him his wife and daughter. They left for their home on Monday afternoon.

E E Blackwood, representative of the O R & N in this city, returned from a business trip to Nanaimo last evening. He reports everything in a flourishing condition at the Black Diamond city and plenty of money in circulation.

—W. H. Kinross, the musical conductor, has returned to Oakland. He is very indignant at recent publications concerning his absence, and the hasty action of some of his creditors.

Dr. Gray, who has visited this city on several occasions in the interest of the San Francisco Journal of Commerce, is at the Driard, and will leave for Alaska to-morrow on a trip combining pleasure and business.

Sir Saul Samuel, Agent General for New South Wales, in England, is at the Driard en route from the Australian colonies to the old country. He is accompanied by Lady Samuel, Miss Samuel, Master Samuel, Mr. and Mrs. Hegan, E. E. Sawyer and E. I. Brooks the private secretary. The two latter will proceed to Alaska to-morrow on the Elder. Sir Samuel and family will leave for Banff to-night.

AN INDIAN COURT.

How Justice is Administered on the Naas by the Indians.

On Saturday, July 21st, Charles Burton, constable at Kincolith, went to Naas Harbor and took Arthur Gurney to Kincolith, and there the village council gathered to act as magistrates—George Kinsada, Henry Alford, Samuel Seymore and Mathew Haldow, with Joseph Pollard, clerk of court, and Charles Burton, constable (all Indians).

They first tried Elizabeth Haldow and fined her $20; fine paid.

The second case was that of Arthur Gurney. The presiding magistrate said to the accused, "No talk—only one thing—$25 money your fine." Chorus by all the magistrates, "Only one word, $25, we want." The man does not have the money, so Sunday afternoon, July 22nd, the court assembled again to see about the paying of the fine. Arthur now wrote a note, witnessed by Joseph Pollard, promising to pay the council $25 when he got his money for his work. They accepted this and closed the court.

Who is to get the money; will it go to the government? X.Y.Z.

TO-DAY'S DISPATCHES.

Fighting Cholera at Jacksonvilled--Woman's Suffrage Defeated in W. T.

Lynch Law in Mississippi---A Butcher Hacks Himself to Pieces.

HON. MR. BOWELL.

Ottawa, Aug. 14—Hon. Mr. Bowell leaves for Victoria to-morrow. The announcement of his approaching marriage with Mrs. Stephenson, of Napanee, was premature, and it is now rumored that the engagement is broken off, in consequence of the refusal of the family of the minister to view the marriage in a proper spirit. The lady is prostrated with grief, and it is not improbable that a breach of promise case may grow out of the affair. In Belleville, Mr. Bowell said to a friend: "It is true," he said to a confidential friend, "I paid the lady some attention on the occasion of my last visit to that town, but the announcement of my wedding has been made without my consent."

SIR DONALD DEPARTS.

Montreal, Que., Aug. 13—Sir Donald and Lady Smith returned to England via New York this morning. Sir Donald, who has been very ill, is much better. He had heard the rumor about the removal of the Hudson's Bay headquarters to Canada, but did not believe it was true, because the company's charter will not permit it to be removed from England. Concerning the resignation of Sir George Stephen, Sir Donald said it was a matter which had occurred within the last few days, and the people here knew as much about it as he was in a position to tell.

A MURDERER'S REMORSE.

Montreal, Que., Aug. 13—Angus Jacobs, the Indian murderer, was brought to the city this morning. He confesses his guilt and says his only excuse was that he was drunk, but is willing to stand his punishment. He became badly broken down and twice tried to cut his throat without success. The Coroner's Jury brought in a verdict of wilful murder against Jacobs, who will be committed for trial on Tuesday.

CABLE NEWS.

PARNELL AND THE TIMES.

London, Aug. 13—Parnell's move in presenting his suit against the Times in the Scotch courts is one which yields advantages which he could not by any possibility secure in any other part of the kingdom. Scotch law does not require proof of publication as basis of an action, as is the case in England, nor does it require that the jury should be unanimous in its verdict, a majority of three jurors being sufficient to determine an issue. Bringing the action in Scotland meets with the approval of all Parnellites and most of the Liberals. Concerning the matter, Mr. Parnell has retained the Right Honorable John C. Balfour, member for Clackmannan, and Mr. Alexander Asher, Q. C., member for Elgin.

The Times is profoundly surprised at the step which Parnell has taken. It says that whether his action is seriously meant or only designed to waste time and money, the work of the commission of enquiry will go on unaffected.

Parnellites will apply to the judges of the new commission of enquiry for a commission to be sent to America to obtain inspection of important documents relative to charges brought against them, which will be investigated by the commission.

The Scotch courts have taken recess till October. It is likely Parnell's suit against the Times will be tried in November.

THE FORGER DISCOVERED.

London, Aug. 14—It is rumored that the forger of the Parnell letters has been discovered and that the discovery had much to do with the Edinburgh suit. Parnell intends to prosecute his action against the Times in Scotch courts with all possible speed, but in any case the trial of the suit can not come on before November.

PRINCE JOSEPH DEAD.

Berlin, Aug. 14—Prince Joseph of Saxe-Coburg Gotha, has died of inflammation of the lungs.

AMERICAN DISPATCHES.

GALE ON THE LAKES.

Oswego, N. Y., Aug. 14—A heavy northwest gale prevails on the lakes and yachts, schooners and other small craft are being washed ashore and wrecked. A yacht capsized at Charlotte and one man was drowned. Several hundred feet of the breakwater here was washed away. There is great anxiety for a number of schooners overdue or missing.

EMBEZZLERS ARRESTED.

Salt Lake, Utah, Aug. 14.—Simon Bamberger, formerly manager of the San Pete Valley railroad, and F. K. Morris his clerk, have been arrested, charged with embezzling ten thousand dollars of the company's funds.

WAREHOUSES BURNED.

Peoria, Ill. Aug. 14—Martin & Co.'s agricultural implement warehouse, and Kingman & Co.'s warehouse were burned early this morning. Loss $150,000.

DYNAMITER'S WORK.

Chicago, Aug. 14—A large gas pipe filled with a dynamite bomb was found this morning on the tracks in the coal yard, 16th street, near the viaduct.

MRS LANGTRY.

New York, Aug. 14—Mrs. Langtry, accompanied by Fred Gibhardt, departed for the west this morning by the Erie Express.

RESIDENCE BURNED.

Willows, Cal. Aug. 14.—The residence of W. C. Mindock, broker, was burned this morning. The furniture was partly saved; loss $10,000; insured; cause unknown.

ELEVATOR AFLAME.

Peoria, Ill., Aug. 14—Elevator "A," an immense structure, is all ablaze and is likely doomed to destruction, as there is scarcely any water, owing to the breakage of two pumps at the water works this morning.

FIGHTING CHOLERA.

Jacksonville, Aug. 14—The city was alive with excitement last night, efforts being made to destroy the germs of the fever. The artillery began the work of testing the concussion theory, while the burning of pitch, tar and sulphur was increased. Two hundred and fifty pounds of powder were provided for the battery, which fired 100 rounds, continuing through the night.

Two newspapers have suspended, while the two that continue have great difficulty in issuing their editions.

Charleston, S. C., Aug. 14—Reports from the fever districts in Georgia are meagre. Specials from Savannah, Waycross and Augusta say that extraordinary precautions are being taken in quarantining against Jacksonville and Manatee. Surgeon General Hamilton spent all of yesterday at Waycross in establishing a station for fumigation of mails from the south of the cordon. These stations will be established on all roads leading from Jacksonville. Several hundred refugees have already taken up their residence at Bouleyne, the health station established. In Charlestown most vigorous quarantine is being observed. Four men endeavoring to land here from Jacksonville were arrested and thoroughly fumigated and sent on. No signs of fever have been observed here.

WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE.

Olympia, W. T., Aug. 14—The Supreme Court this morning rendered a decision unanimously sustaining the lower court in its action in declaring the woman's suffrage law of this territory unconstitutional. Notice of appeal to the Supreme Court of the United States was given by the losing side.

THE AMERICAN PARTY.

Washington, Aug. 14—The American party National Convention was called to order in Grand Army hall at one o'clock this afternoon. A hundred delegates, representing a dozen or more States were present, when ex-Governor Isaac Sharp, chairman of the National Committee, called the Convention to order, and nominated P. D. Wigginton, of California, for temporary chairman. Wigginton was unanimously elected. After listening to a short address by Wigginton and the appointment of a committee on credentials, the Convention recessed until 4 p. m.

COL. CROCKER'S FATHER ILL.

San Francisco, Aug. 14.—At a few minutes before eleven oclock this morning Colonel Crocker received a telegram from Monterey that his father was dangerously ill and that he was not expected to live.

New York Aug. 14.—Mr. Chas Crocker left this city for Monterey by a special train last evening.

TWO CHILDREN BURNED.

Summit, N. J., Aug. 14—Early this morning two young children of Rev. Mr. McCluskey, a Baptist minister of Newark, N. J., were burned to death in a fire which destroyed a camp cottage at Mt. Tabor, Danville, N. J. The cause was the explosion of a kerosene lamp.

PUNISHMENT OF TRUSTS.

Washington, Aug. 14—Senator Reagan to-day introduced a bill to define trusts and provide for the punishment of persons connected with them. In the course of the discussion as to its reference Sherman said he had given some attention to the subject in order to see how far it was within the constitutional power of Congress to prohibit trusts and combinations in the interest of trade. It is very clear there was no such power to raise and collect taxes. It was a power which might be exercised by each state for itself. A similar law had been enacted in England and other countries. Whether such laws could be engrafted by national authority on the statute books of the United States under its peculiar system of government there was some doubt.

BLAINE'S RECEPTION.

Boston, Aug. 14—The Blaine party left at noon for the railway station, accompanied by Dr. Burdet and Senator Southworth. There was no demonstration en route. Great crowds at the station cheered lustily. Blaine stood on the platform and bowed his acknowledgments.

Lynn, Mass, Aug. 14—On reaching Lynn Blaine met an enthusiastic reception and being introduced by Cabbot Lodge, made a short speech.

CAPT. A. H. BOGARDUS.

The Champion Wing Shot of the World--With Sell's Circus.

The name of Captain Bogardus is a household word in the sporting circles of every land. He is the undisputed greatest living marksman; in May, 1875, he carried away the champion medal of the world and all the honors in a memorable contest. Since, through a succession of twenty-five smoke-crowned encounters, he has held undisputed and victorious possession of the everywhere coveted trophy. He is the only man that ever killed 100 birds in as many shots, and who broke 1,000 glass balls in 1,000 shots in all in one hour and six minutes. His remarkable record is without precedent or parallel, and the most expert handlers of the shotgun have tried in vain to equal the least of his well-known achievements. His oldest son is master of the rifle and the acknowledged superior of the most unerring shots known to the sporting world, and the youngest, a boy of twelve years, while rapidly maneuvering on roller skates, breaks glass balls (with his rifle) held in his father's unprotected hands, and supplements this amazing performance by ringing a target bell, at twenty paces, sixteen times in twenty seconds. The most marvelous display of shotgun and rifle practice ever seen at one time anywhere. His other sons are equally proficient. This noted family of crack shots can be seen in connection with the numberless other attractive features of Sells Brothers' Great Hippodrome and Menagerie, in this city, on Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 15th and 16th.

THE SCHOOL QUESTION.

Notwithstanding that several articles have appeared in the TIMES concerning certain flagrant abuses of our school system none of the subsidized organs have had either the courage to condemn nor the manliness to commend our course. The fact is not important in itself, however, excepting in so far as it shows the value of "machine papers" to the general public. While the TIMES has been exposing governmental wrong-doing the others have been sleeping under a hedge, grown fat, indolent and insulting with living sumptously for a long time on the people's earnings. It is satisfactory to know, however, that the humble efforts of the TIMES to stop an injustice are appreciated by right-minded people and judging from the information given by "Fair Play" in another column, some interesting developments in connection with this matter may be looked for when the house meets next winter. Hon. Mr. Robson and his colleagues will then be asked to make an explanation of the unexcusable liberties they take with the school laws, and it will, we believe, be shown that certain changes would conduce to purity of government in this province. Undue familiarity with the law seems to have produced a kind of contempt for it in the minds of our public servants. In addition to the letter of "Fair Play," several communications sent to this office on the subject and the following gentle note of warning in the Inland Sentinel indicate the temper of the province on the subject:

"It appears that the time has come "when all teachers may very proper "ly be placed hereafter on the same "footing, and now that the attention "of the Government has been directed "to the matter through the press of "the province, it is probable that in-"structions will be given at an early "date, with a view to have the matter "placed on the basis indicated."

PLUMBING AND HEALTH.

Some facts contributed to the Scientific American by Mr. A. R. CARTER, of the Baltimore health department, relating to the effect of scientific plumbing and drainage on public health, tell an eloquent story. His statement, as summarized in an exchange, shows that during the period from 1830 to 1883, inclusive, scarlet fever caused 12,197 deaths in that city, being a yearly average of 226. In the last named year the number of deaths resulting from this disease was 334. In the year 1883 the Baltimore City Council passed an ordinance regulating plumbing, which went into operation January 1 1884, with the following remarkable results: In 1884 the number of deaths from scarlet fever was 104; in 1885, 68; in 1886, 32, and in 1887, 36. The total for the period of four years after the coming into force of the regulations was only a trifle above what had been the yearly average previously for a period of fifty years, while the second and third years showed a large progressive reduction. For a period of seven years anterior to the coming into force of the plumbing regulations the deaths from diptheria reached a total of 3,289, equal to a yearly average of 469. Since the regulations have been in force the yearly average has been reduced one-half. From these facts it is inferred that a large proportion of the disease in cities is attributable to defective plumbing, and that the adoption of restrictive regulations, such as those enforced in Baltimore, Toronto and other cities, must be attended by a marked and steady improvement in the public health.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

C. A. Mallory, reeve and warden, is spoken of as the probable reform candidate for the legislature in East Northumberland. He is a brother of Dr. Mallory, ex-M. P. P.

The Empire bravely challenges a contest on the trade question in South Lanark. As the conservative majority in that riding is about one thousand, the Empire can throw down the gauntlet with a considerable degree of confidence that it will not be taken up.

The election contest in Colchester will be a three-cornered one. The candidates nominate were Sir Adams Archibald, Ministeralist; Edward Fulton, Prohibitionist (Liberal), and Cyrus Eaton, Liberal. With two Liberals in the field, Archibald's election is conceded.

Referring to the retirement of Sir George Stephen, the Globe says:—"The retiring president has not dealt ungenerously with his share of the syndicate gains, nor will he be unkindly remembered by the people of Canada. We are sure the Globe represents public opinion in wishing him all the luck in the world and the coronet to boot, if that is the one thing his heart is set on." The Empire says: "The name of Sir George Stephen will always live in the history of Canada as the most prominent figure in the development of its railway interests, which has attracted the attention and admiration of the civilized world.

Lawyers are puzzling over a word of three letters, which appears in the will of a wealthy lady recently deceased. "Two" or "ten" is a question which the lady's executers find it impossible to determine. The gift is either of $1,000 or $10,000, but as the word is written out in an open hand it can be taken for either amount. A number of experts have examined the writing, but only a few of those have ventured an unhesitating opinion, and these few are about equally divided in their views. The case will probably go to the courts, as the sum of $8,000 depends upon the interpretation.

From the interview with Mr. Eugene Canfield, the result of which is published in another column, it will be learned that the report circulated by the Colonist that a libel suit would be instituted against the Columbian by that gentleman or his friends, "is all a mistake." The denial, it is true, was scarcely necessary, as it did not appear likely that action would be taken by the promoters of a railway project against one of their warmest advocates, and upon a frivolous pretext; but on the ground that it draws public attention to the unreliability of the morning paper's news, the refutation is timely and proper.

Senator Cullom is afraid of the Canada of the future. Asked by a reporter why he was alarmed about Canada with its meagre population of 4,000,000 when the United States overshadows it with 60,000,000, he replied: "It isn't the present, it's the future I'm considering. England if doing everything she can to build up the Dominion of Canada. How many years do you think it will be before Canada's 5,000,000 population will become 25,000,000? Our interests are diametrically opposed to each other. Sooner or later they will clash, and when they do trouble will follow, for it is not in the nature of things that we can live on in harmony forever, and when that time comes Canada must either absorb us or we must absorb Canada, and I leave you to judge which of the two will be done."

Mr. Canfield does not agree with us when we state that the independence of the New Westminster Southern of C. P. or N. P. control will be impossible, and to strengthen his position instances the case of a man who owns one team of horses remaining independent of another man who owns a hundred teams. The analogy would be a happy one if it had been stated that the one-team owner received his freight from the one-hundred team owner to haul it to another large freighting company, with the privilege of picking up small packages on the way. The swallowing operation would be a comparatively easy gastronomic effort under such circumstances. However, the first object is to secure the road; we suppose it matters very little to the average citizen who owns or operates it. The route of the proposed line, which is along navigable waters, precludes the possibility of high charges, and the benefit of its operation will be almost equally great to the country at large, whether the Canadian or the Northern Pacifics owns it, or whether it be an independent bond of union between the two great competing lines.

SMELTER FOR KAMLOOPS.

A Company with a Capital of $50,000 to Erect One.

Gen. Ely, of Norwich, Conn., has visited Nicola and other parts of the country for the purpose of inspecting the mines and ore therefrom. As a result of his visit to Kamloops, he has decided, in conjunction with Manager Henderson of the Star mine, to form a company with $50,000 paid up capital and construct a thirty ton smelter in Kamloops or some other point in the surrounding district.

A Sentinel representative met Manager Henderson on Tuesday last, and in answer to the enquiries whether the matter was fully decided upon, that gentleman stated:

"Yes, there is no doubt about it. The attention of General Ely was directed to the matter by the article which appeared in the Sentinel of the 28th inst., pointing out the advantages of such an industry in this district. The company will be formed and the smelter built as soon as possible. The point of location has not been definitely decided, but Kamloops is preferred on certain conditions. The company will have a cash capital of $50,000, and it is proposed to put in a thirty-ton smelting plant, with the object of increasing the capacity as fast as the development of the country permits."

Mr. Henderson further stated that Kamloops would have the first choice of location, and the smelter would be placed here on the condition that a bonus of $5000 was granted by the town.

In case the proposition for the bonus is not determined by the people of Kamloops, another location will be selected, either Golden or Revelstoke.

Mr. Henderson will leave here about the 1st of November for Norwich, when a meeting of the gentlemen interested will be held and the company formed.

WHATCOM.

The Air Freight With Railroad News and Rumors.

Whatcom, Aug. 11—The force slashing out the right of way for Cornwall's railroad from Bellingham Bay to Fort Hope, are out five miles. They have been at work by the day for the company, but have been discharged, and the work will be let by contract in acre sections. The graders are still at work.

Word comes from New Westminster that the Bank of British Columbia offers to take the bonds of the New Westminster Southern Railroad at par. A wealthy Port Townsend Chinaman wants to do all the grading from the boundary to New Westminster, and asks no pay until the roadbed is ready for the ties.

It is said that the West Coast Railroad Company is in favor of the Canadian Pacific Company, and that a union of the forces will be made to push the line through at an early day.

Ayer's Hair Vigor keeps the hair soft and pliant, imparts to it the lustre and freshness of youth, causes it to grow luxuriantly, eradicates Dandruff, cures all scalp diseases, and is the most cleanly of all hair preparations.

AYER'S Hair Vigor has given me perfect satisfaction. I was nearly bald for six years, during which time I used many hair preparations, but without success. Indeed, what little hair I had was growing thinner, until I tried Ayer's Hair Vigor. I used two bottles of the Vigor, and my head is now well covered with a new growth of hair. —Judson B. Chapel, Peabody, Mass.

HAIR that has become weak, gray, and faded, may have new life and color restored to it by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "My hair was thin, faded, and dry, and fell out in large quantities. Ayer's Hair Vigor stopped the falling, and restored my hair to its original color. As a dressing for the hair, this preparation has no equal.—Mary N. Hammond, Stillwater, Minn.

VIGOR, youth, and beauty, in the appearance of the hair, may be preserved for an indefinite period by the use of Ayer's Hair Vigor. "A disease of the scalp caused my hair to become harsh and dry, and to fall out freely. Nothing I tried seemed to do me any good until I commenced using Ayer's Hair Vigor. Three bottles of this preparation restored my hair to a healthy condition, and it is now soft and pliant. My scalp is cured, and it is also free from dandruff.—Mrs. E. R. Foss, Milwaukee, Wis.

Gopher Exterminator.

Indian Head, N. W. T., Aug. 7—Early this spring Messrs. Hill and Mason, of Sintatula, wrote to Mons. Pasteur, of Paris, for a small quantity of the poison which he had recommended for the extermination of the rabbits in Australia, hoping it might be successful in destroying "gophers," the pests of this country, and received from him a most courteous reply. He also sent, at his own expense, a bottle containing microbes of chicken cholera, with full instructions for use, which are as follows: Mix the microbes with soup, allowing the same to lie three or four days to germinate, then mix with meal or shorts. The experiment has been highly successful, and the gentlemen referred to say that they have gained the upper hand of the gopher, and anticipate no further trouble from them. Large numbers of them have been found dead, and an examination proved them all to be diseased, whilst a few running around are minus their hair or fur. It is to be hoped that this means of ridding the country of such destructive pests may be taken up by the authorities, seeing Mr. Pasteur has kindly offered to give further supplies of microbes should the experiments prove successful.

VICTORIA INDUSTRIES.

The Pioneer Soda Works of A. Phillips & Son, Yates Street.

The Broom Factory on Esquimalt Road--The Great Cleaner.

THE PIONEER SODA WATER WORKS,

A. Phillips & Son, proprietors, at foot of Yates street, being established in '58, is consequently to be classed amongst the old timers of the city. We found Mr. Phillips, jr., busily engaged in directing and assisting the workings of the old establishment. He kindly did the honors of the factory with grace and dignity. We found one of "Taft's" Boston patent generators busily supplying the areated water for the busy bottlers. By this system the gas passes direct from the generator without the elaborate filterations of the system before described. By this system there is of course less apparatus required. As to the quality consumers are the best judges. Phillips & Son turn out a well known class of goods in the areated water line. Lemonade, ginger ale, soda, potash, ginger beer, etc. They manufacture some twenty-seven kinds of syrup and extracts from the natural fruit. The daily output is some 115 doz and they export largely to island and mainland points, particularly to Skeena River. The annual trade done is some $13,000, and business is steady and increasing. Seven men are constantly employed. The chemicals are obtained from Toronto and Montreal, and bottles from London, England. The firm has received diplomas and medals from the Colonies and India Exhibition and from several provincial shows. Mr. Phillips, sr., intends visiting Eastern Canada soon for the purpose of studying the merits of the various areated machines in use in order to keep up the old reputation of the Pioneer Works, and will then boast of an areated water manufactory beyond compare.

Being thro' the dust and smoke of busy factories, and covered with dust we sought the universal cleanser far up the Esquimalt road, near Russell Station, where we came on the secluded nook of

THE BRITISH COLUMBIA BROOM FACTORY,

Andrew Strachan proprietor. As the immortal Swift said: "A broomstick is an emblem of a man standing on his head; being of a topsy-turvey nature, his head is where his heels should be, grovelling in the earth; and yet with all his faults he sets up to be a universal reformer and corrector of abuses, a remover of grievances, rakes into every street's corner of nuisance, bringing hidden corruption to light and raises a mighty dust where there was none before, sharing deeply all the while in the same pollution he pretends to sweep away; his last days are spent in slavery to women and generally the least deserving, till worn out to the stumps like his brother brooms, he is either kicked out of doors or made use of to kindle flames for others to warm themselves." To the careful housewife the broom is invaluable either as an instrument in keeping her house clean or keeping her husband in order. Men have been known to use it against fair women are now in defense of a wicket, so that with all its good and bad qualities, its moral and social influences, a description of a broom factory may not be found uninteresting. The broom industry, as carried on by Mr. Strachan, lays no claim to the use of native material except the labor of willing hands. The corn broom is imported, so are the handles, the wire, the twine and even the tin fasteners. An attempt was made to grow the corn on this island, but it failed, and although this is a wooden country, and although Mr. Strachan offered to import the necessary machinery, yet he could not find amongst any of our wood working factories any one willing to take hold of the handles. Even the tin-smith refused to make the tin fastners at prices which the imported article cost. The broom is imported in bundles, from Kansas principally, the handles from Chicago, and the locks, wire and twine from other ports. The "broom" has not that bright cream color as we see on the broom sticks when it arrives at the factory, it being a pale green. It is first damped and bleached, picked free from seeds and then sorted. In that state it is taken to a wire tying machine worked by a treadal, where it is affixed to the handle by the wire, then taken to the press machine where it is sewed, then cut and finally finished off on a machine called a scraper, a rough kind of comb. Afterwards it is tied up in assorted bundles, stored and ready for sale. Mr. Strachan was absent and Mrs. Strachan, who assists in the factory, fully explained in a lucid manner the method of turning out a substantial broom or whisk. The good lady boasted of the factory, notwithstanding Eastern competition and the drawbacks before mentioned, turning out in the past year some 2500 dozen brooms and whisks of all kinds, valued at $6000. There is three hands constantly employed. The trade before the opening of the C. P. R. was very promising under the great N. P., which may be said to be the cause of its establishment here. However, it is found to be ineffectual against the competition of the larger eastern factories. To judge from the wholesale price is that of the retail business must be very profitable.

The man of THE TIMES, refreshed by a drink of pure milk, free from the mixture of the city water works, took his departure finishing off the industrial manufactories of the city of Victoria with a broom that has swept the city's boundaries and vicinity clean, and it is hoped without raising any dust.

A MYSTERIOUS INCIDENT.

A Matter that is Puzzling Mr. Geo T. Myers of Seattle.

In November, 1886, Otto Lund, employed by George T. Myers, left Budlong's boat house for the cannery at West Seattle, in a fishing boat, well balanced with ballast. When within half a mile of West Seattle a squall struck the boat and she capsized, and sank out of sight, sail, mast and all. Neither Lund nor the boat has been heard of since until Thursday when a gentleman sought Mr. Myers and said: "Are you the gentleman who lost a double ended fishing boat about two years ago?"

Mr. Myers thought for an instant and replied: "About two years ago one of my boats, No. 19, sunk with one of my employees in, out in the bay, and although I advertised for her I have never seen or heard of her since."

The man replied: "My name is J. W. Walker, and I am a member of the Victoria police. Your boat is in Victoria, and every one knows her as Myers' boat. I do not know how she got there, but I do know that she has been fitted up and is now engaged in the smuggling business. She is considered worth $450, and does a good business in carrying opium and Chinamen to this side. The boys know that she belongs to you and they have been expecting you over for some time to claim her."

Mr. Myers is very much puzzled over the matter, and thinks seriously of visiting Victoria to investigate it.—Seattle Post-Intelligencer.

An Explanation.

What is this "nervous trouble" with which so many seem now to be afflicted? If you will remember a few years ago the word Malaria was comparatively unknown—to day it is as common as any word in the English language, yet this word covers only the meaning of another word used by our forefathers in times past. So it is with nervous diseases, as they and Malaria are intended to cover what our grandfathers called Biliousness, and all are caused by troubles that arise from a diseased condition of the Liver which in performing its functions finding it cannot dispose of the bile through the ordinary channel is compelled to pass it off through the system, causing nervous troubles, Malaria, Bilious Fever, etc. You who are suffering can well appreciate a cure. We recommend Green's August Flower. Its cures are marvelous. *

THE SKEENA TROUBLE.

Arrival of the Boscowitz—The Indians Quiet.

Nanaimo, Aug. 14, 8 a m.—The steamer Boscowitz has just arrived from the north. Everything still remains quiet on the Skeena.

Green, the constable, who shot Jim is being tried and also some Indians charged with killing other Indians.

Jim's father and friends, after conferring with Rev. Mr. Green, at Nass, have returned to Skeena via the trail. They are satisfied now that the constable is to be tried.

The Indians at the Nass mouth have ordered the American gun boat to stop surveying.

Alaska Steamer.

The steamer Geo. W. Elder, Capt. Hunter, will leave the outer wharf at noon to-morrow. There are a large number of passengers awaiting her arrival here, and it is probable her accommodation will be fully utilized. The necessity for a larger and better steamer for the route has been apparent for the past two years, and if the route is to become popular with eastern tourists they will have to be provided next summer.

Again at the Bottom.

While the boiler for the steamer North Pacific was being raised at Tacoma on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, an iron strap, through which a part of the raising tackle was hooked to the timber support, broke, bringing the strain suddenly on one of the chain cables by which the boiler was held up. This cable also gave way, and the boiler went to the bottom again. There is still one chain fastened to the boiler, and the timber supports projecting over the wharf are in place, and the work of raising the boiler again will not be as great an undertaking as before.

Inhospitable and Rude.

New York Herald: The tone of the debate in the Senate on the fisheries treaty suggests one or two reflections. It will be difficult for any country having a sense of national pride to seek to open treaty relations with the United States, and no foreign statesman who respects himself will care to invite the criticisms which in open Senate have been made upon Mr. Chamberlain. Mr. Bayard, we presume, can endure having his natural desire for peace with all nations described as "the vanity of an aged statesman." That is mild. We shall undoubtedly have him "bought by British gold" when Ingalls comes into the debate. But the attack upon Mr. Chamberlain is inhospitable and rude.

Black-Eyed Salvation.

Amongst the recent converts made by the Salvation Army in this city is a burly individual sporting a wide hat, enveloped in a red bandana handkerchief. Last evening the warrior bold took offence at a remark made by one of the congregation in the Salvation Army barracks. He made a "charge" at the offender and was met by a "squad" of grocer's clerks, machinists, dry goods salesmen and plumbers. The mob rolled around on the floor for some minutes whilst the lassies prayed for the success of their Lily of the Valley. At the conclusion of the skirmish the red bandana soldier arose with a fine large black eye. Before the police arrived the belligerants dispersed.

The Drowning Accident.

Nanaimo, Aug. 14.—The young man Walter Coleman, who was drowned in the Cowichan river on Monday, was about 23 years of age, and came from Leicester, England, two years ago. He has a couple of brothers farming in Alberni, and at the time of the accident the unfortunate young man was working for Mr. Marks, of Glenora. He was very popular in the community.

Deceased was bathing at the time, and getting beyond his depth and being unable to swim he sank and drowned in sight of a young boy who had accompanied him to the river. The boy ran to the railway station at Koksilah and notified Agent Wood, who ran to the place, but too late to be of any service. His body was recovered shortly afteward in about twelve feet of water.

Southern Pacific R. R.

Articles were filed with the County Clerk at Seattle on Saturday last incorporating the Seattle & Southern Railway. The company will build and operate a railroad from Seattle to Portland, a distance of 180 miles. The West Shore branch of the Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern will bring the Canadian Pacific to that city, making Seattle the Pacific Coast terminus in the United States. This circumstance is of very great importance, chiefly from the fact that the Canadian Pacific is and always will be a non-pooling road. The Seattle, Lake Shore & Eastern will, by its main line, give Seattle connection with the producing heart of the Territory, and another direct Eastern connection with the Manitobs, which it is now admitted is building to a connection with it. What all this means in connection with Seattle's commercial position and her immediate resources small wisdom is required to interpret.

THE WESTMINSTER SOUTHERN.

Interview with Senator Canfield—The Attitude of His Company.

Senator Canfield, of Whatcom, the original promoter and the life and soul of the New Westminster Southern & Bellingham Bay railway enterprise, was interviewed by a representative of the TIMES while in the city. The scribe asked for a short interview, which request was cheerfully complied with by the genial and business-like senator.

Reporter—Is there really anything in the report that you are going to bring a libel suit against the Columbian?

Senator Canfield—The report about the libel suit is all a mistake. The Columbian has been the constant friend of our enterprise from the very beginning, and no such suit has ever been contemplated for a moment. An anonymous writer, "Civis," got a letter inserted in its issue of the 7th inst., which insinuated rather than reflected against the financial standing of the firm of C. M. Sheaf & Co., of which I am a member. At the public meeting at New Westminster that evening my attention was called to the letter in such a way that I felt compelled to notice it, and the next edition of the paper contained a retraction from "Civis," and a very severe editorial comment upon the libellous letter. So there the matter rests. I see no occasion for any lawsuit, and none for any combination of newspapers on your or any other side of the line for the purpose of defense against libel suits. In my business experience of thirty years I have never had occasion to quarrel with your fraternity and I hope none will arise.

Reporter—The public would like to know your attitude to the C. P. R.

Senator Canfield—I note that in one of your editorials a remark that the tendency of the new movement seemed to be antagonistic to the Canadian Pacific Railway, and the further conclusion that the new line could not "long remain independent of either one or the other of the two great transcontinental railways." The first part of this statement is incorrect. There is no hostility on our part, and no engagement anywhere which is hostile to your Canadian railway. We are building a line to do business on business principles. If the Canadian Pacific wishes to exchange traffic on fair terms, we shall certainly meet it in the same spirit. There is no hostile alliance, or, indeed, any at all, with any other line by our company.

But I beg your pardon as to the last part of the prediction of the paragraph. A man who only owns two horses or a team, need not always be swallowed up by the man who owns a hundred, or fifty teams. Is not that so? The Victoria TIMES need not necessarily be swallowed and digested by its London namesake.

After conversing with the Senator on a few other points which have already been referred to in the Times the scribe took his leave carrying away with him the impression that the New Westminster Southern had the right man at the head of it.

THE READY REVOLVER.

Drawn on a Police Officer in a Noted House of Ill-Fame.

A young man named Harry Long alias Bonney was arrested at 11:30 o'clock last night on a charge of bringing stolen money into Canada. The prisoner is a young man about 21 years of age and arrived in this city a few days ago. Last night two young men named Eddy Wise and C. Stone informed the police that the prisoner robbed them in Seattle. Whilst they were absent from their rooms the prisoner picked up a number of watches, chains, jewellry and an amount of money with which he left for Victoria. They followed him and reported to the police that he was in a house of ill-fame situate in Trounce alley. At 11:30 last night, Supt. Bloomfield, accompanied by officer Mitten, went to the house in which they found the young man. He was pointed out by the young men and was brought into the front room where he admitted taking the missing property. He handed over three gold rings, one set with diamonds. When the officer proceeded to arrest Long he stepped back and drawing a loaded pistol pointed it at the officer's head. The officer, with great presence of mind, grabbed the man's hand and threw his arm still grasping the pistol, over his shoulder. He was held there whilst Supt. Bloomfield took the weapon from him. In the Police Court this morning Mr. Walker appeared for the defense and asked for a remand which was granted until Thursday next. The prisoner has pawned and sold a number of the watches. He will be charged with pointing a loaded revolver at officer Mitten.

REV. FATHER BOUCHARD.

The Venerable Missionary Preaches in the R. C. Pro-Cathedral.

On Sunday evening the Rev. Father Bouchard opened a mission in St. Andrew's R. C. pro-Cathedral, View street. Services will be held during the whole week at 7:30 o'clock every morning and at 7:30 o'clock each evening. During the services a series of instructions will be given. Last evening Father Bouchard preached from the Gospel of St. Matthew, 16th chapter, 18th verse, "I say to thee that thou art Peter and upon this rock I will build My Church and the gates of hell will not prevail against it." The Reverend Father is a clear, forcible speaker. He carried his hearers back to the time when the Supreme Head of the Church of Christ was a visable body and proved that the same church with the same perfect organism that existed 2000 years ago is still the same exclusive, infallible, uncompromising teacher. From the days of the Apostles to the present the Church has the same teaching body. From a little corner in Palestine she has spread amongst all nations teaching truth, knowledge and salvation, until all the mountains and hills are crowned with churches and every valley resounds with hymns of praise. Limited space will not permit of more than passing notice of the instructive lecture delivered by Father Bouchard last evening. This evening the sermon will be on "The True Church of Christ." To-morrow will be the Feast of the Assumption. Services will be held in the pro-Cathedral as on Sunday.

Minus a Watch.

Geo. T. Buck reported to the police yesterday afternoon that his watch and chain were stolen. Last evening officer Mitten met an Indian named Johnny wearing the watch and chain. Johnny was locked up and tried this morning in the police court. From the evidence adduced it was discovered that the complainant was amongst a lot of Indians and was intoxicated. Prisoner proved that Buck owed him $1 and gave the watch as security. His Honor dismissed Johnny and he proudly walked out of the court with the watch and chain. The white man will leave his watch at home before again visiting Indian friends.

Funerals.

The remains of the late David Marvick were laid to rest this afternoon. Rev. J. E Starr officiated at the Pandora street Methodist church and the cemetery. A number of friends paid the last mark of respect to the deceased pioneer.

The funeral of Olive, daughter of David and Clara McLachlin, took place at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the parents' residence, Government street.

OUR TOWN MAJOR.

The Hospital Site and Dr. Davie—Go to the Circus.

Dr. Davie! Dr. Davie! don't get mad. Of course Mr. Chudley won't let you have access to the books of this melee affair. Hasn't he the majority of the subscribers as represented in the general committee to back him up? Hasn't this majority declared in favor of Cadboro Road site? Is it not so written and will it not be so engrossed in the book of the rulers of Israel? Do you suppose for a moment that Mr. C. has not been bothered enough already? or do you want to drive him to resign? Which now is the object? The subscribers in full meeting selected and appointed a general committee. That body selected and appointed a building committee, all good men and true. Now where would all order be were every Tom, Dick and Harry, (as the nursing sister said to the Major) to interfere at the eleventhhour? Why didn't you and your brother medicos object long ago—not leave it till now? In fact you one and all by your silence coincided with the action taken by the building committee. The Major is of opinion that the present opposition is factious, and unwarrantable, apart from any other consideration of the site as confirmed by the voice of a large majority of your general committee, and on these grounds should be put down with the strong hand of public opinion. All this argument, all this bluster and wind, and "much ado about nothing" is disgraceful to any object voluntarily undertaken for the amelioration of human suffering, and an insult to the gracious sovereign whose jubilee it is intended to honor. But where in this discussion are our citizens for whose especial benefit this jubilee testimonial is supposed to be? Echo answers "where!" They are silent, and why? You here in Victoria fancy that people who live in a different part of town, are, as it were, out of the world. You look only on yourselves and the scene about you to be in it. That's narrow, very. Civis, the most honorable word among the Romans—a citizen—seems to be a word of contempt among us, i. e., as a general rule. Now the Major would like to have the opinion of our "citizens," pure and simple, on this Jubilee Hospital discussion. So far they have been silent, and silence gives consent they say. But, Doctor where are your four sites? The Major heard that the "bonded" Burnside road was one. Is that so? One thing the opponents of the Cadboro Road site can't attribute jobbery to the building committee. Let other schemes be as free and pure. They must be so before public opinion, as bad as it is, will listen to any opposition scheme.

"Will you come my dear to—" "Oh! yes, many thanks; I do so love going to a circus, so I'll jump at the first chance, you bet." "Humph, I was going to ask you to come to Beacon Hill for a stroll." "Yes," she snappishly replied, "that would cost you nothing." She left him in disgust. Ladies, make your gentlemen friends take you to the circus. The conundrums and gags of the clown will forcibly remind you of the Jubilee hospital discussion, only there will be far more sense and understanding in them.

THE TOWN MAJOR.

BRITISH JUSTICE.

A Man Released Without Serving His Sentence.

George Hughes, the veteran law breaker of the Pacific coast, was charged in the police court this morning with supplying an intoxicant to an Indian. The prisoner pleaded guilty, and the following colloquy took place:

His Honor—Was the man here before?

Superintendent—Yes, Your Honor, he was sentenced to imprisonment for six months on June 6th.

His Honor—How is he out now before the the time is up?

Superintendent—I don't know, Your Honor. He says the doctor discharged him.

His Honor—That is strange. Why was he discharged?

Hughes—Because I was sick, sir.

His Honor—Well, we will send you back for another six months with hard labor.

This man is an old offender and was sentenced to imprisonment for six months on June 6th. Before serving one-half his term he is discharged from the Provincial goal to again prey on the public. This is contrary to law and should be investigated. The release of this prisoner makes a farce of police court trials, and even if the man was really sick why was he able to walk around selling whiskey to Indians instead of being placed in the hospital?

A CRYING GRIEVANCE.

Have We a Law to Punish Cruelty to Animals?

Some days ago reference was made to two men named Peterson and "Fifteen Charlie" almost killing a horse in the streets of this city and leaving the poor animal on Cook street with blood streaming from its nose and mouth. Friends of the men went to the owners, Messrs. Jones & McNeill, and offered $75 for the damage done to the animal. Mr. Jones refused to treat with them and indignantly replied that he would most likely take the law in his own hands and administer a castigation should he meet the men who would treat an animal in such a brutal manner. Mr. McNeill saw the parties and was given $125 for the injuries received by the horse. Before accepting the money he informed the Superintendent of Police and was told that he could, if he liked, withdraw the charge against the men. These two persons, Peterson and Fifteen Charlie, are at present in the city, and it ought to be the duty of some person to bring them to justice for their ill-usage of the dumb animal. The horse can be seen in a shed adjoining Jones & McNeill's stable and is a most pitable sight. It is also reported that the men never left this city, but were kept in hiding by their friends.

SUPREME COURT.

(Before Hon. Justice Gray.)

Mr. Walls appeared for Menzies. The request was granted and Tuesday, Aug. 21st set for the date of trial.

To-morrow morning Sells' circus will arrive on the steamers Emma Hayward and Alaskan. The street parade will take place at 10:30 o'clock. Supreme Court.

In the case of Gray vs. Armstrong, of Westminster, heard in the Supreme court yesterday, a verdict of $165 was given for the plaintiff. The amount was claimed for repairs by the firm of Gray & Dumbleton to a steam launch. When the firm dissolved the accounts were to be collected by Gray. Armstrong, however, payed his account over to Dumbleton and will now have to pay it over again to Gray and look to the former for relief.
